Palace City Ludwigslust

Ludwigslust is an attractive modern palace city that has retained the charm of the past baroque era. A stately palace, perfect urban symmetry, and probably the largest and most beautiful landscape park in Northern Germany invites you to explore and enjoy long walks at any time of the year. For culture lovers, Ludwigslust has long been much more than an insider tip where the cultural highlights continue one after another throughout the year. Ludwigslust is an ideal starting point for cycling and hiking tours through the south-west of Mecklenburg.

EntdeckerRouten in the Ludwigslust region were developed and published in the context of the Development Programme for Rural Areas in Mecklenburg-Western Pomerania 2014-2020, with funding from the European Agricultural Fund and the rural district Ludwigslust-Parchim.
